

PROCLAMATION

PROCLAIMING SUPPORT FOR THE "SISKIYOU READS" PROGRAM IN SISKIYOU COUNTY

Whereas, reading is fun, playing an integral role in our lives, and;

Whereas, works of fiction and non-fiction pique interest and inspiration and shape our understanding of each other and ourselves, and;

Whereas, books reveal unexplored universes and stimulate curiosity, and play a particularly important role in prompting inquiry, and;

Whereas, reading helps us to accept ourselves while challenging preconceived notions and teaching us critical life lessons, and;

Whereas, the Siskiyou Reads program invites all residents of Siskiyou County to read a book in common, and;

Whereas, encouraging everyone in Siskiyou County to read the same book and share their insights from this reading will build a sense of community within our county.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Board of Supervisors for the County of Siskiyou hereby supports the shared experience of reading a book in common in order to build community and encourages all residents to participate in the Siskiyou Reads programs and activities conducted surrounding the book selected for 2017: "A Man Called Ove."

ATTEST: Colleen Setzer, Clerk

Michael N. Kobseff, Chair

By:
Deputy

