Definition:

Under general supervision, to supervise inmates at the County Detention Facility, according to laws, regulations, and policies of the state of California and Siskiyou County; to enforce Facility rules and maintain facility security; to be responsible for the care, custody, and confinement of inmates during an assigned shift; to oversee work details and leisure activities; to perform bailiff duties during court sessions; to perform special assignments; and to do related work as required.

Distinguishing Characteristics:

This is the advanced journey level in the Correctional Deputy class series. Incumbents perform the full scope of Correctional Deputy duties, as well as special assignments. This class is distinguished from Correctional Deputy by the assignment of special responsibilities such as serving as Transport Coordinator for the department, serving as SWAP crew coordinator, training other staff, or performing other specialized work.

Correctional Corporal is a classification for employees who have completed the arrest and firearms training required for peace officers pursuant to subdivision (a) of Penal Code section 832, the training required by the Board of Corrections for custodial personnel pursuant to Penal Code Section 6035, and the training required for custodial personnel of local detention facilities pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Title 15 of the California Code of Regulations. Correctional Corporals for the County of Siskiyou have peace officer status only as described in Section 830.1 (c) of the California Penal Code.

Reports to:

Correctional Sergeant, Jail Lieutenant, or Jail Captain.

Classifications Supervised:

This is not a supervisory class. However, incumbents may serve as training officers or be delegated "shift charge" responsibilities in the absence of a Correctional Sergeant.
