State of California, County of Siskiyou Board of Supervisors Minutes, July 5, 2022

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Siskiyou County, California, on the 5th day of July 2022, was canceled due to technical issues. July 5, 2022 agenda items were continued to the regular meeting of July 12, 2022.

| Attest:                   | Brandon A. Criss, Chair |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| Laura Bynum, County Clerk |                         |
|                           |                         |
| By:                       |                         |
| Deputy                    |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |
|                           |                         |