Treasurer - Tax Collector

Approve the Siskiyou County Treasurer's Investment Policy as presented with the change to section 15.2 removing the requirement for annual Board of Supervisors review and approval.

County Administration - Approve letter to Bureau of Land Management Medford District providing comments on the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument Resource Management Plan/Environmental Impact Statement. Letter approved as amended.

This item was pulled from the consent agenda at Chair Kobseff's request.

Deputy County Administrator Elizabeth Nielsen appeared before the Board.

Supervisor Haupt shared concerns regarding the lack of County coordination efforts with the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) regarding the Resource Management Plan/Environmental Impact Statement (RMP/EIS) and requested development of an additional letter to the BLM identifying and detailing National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) requirements. In addition, Supervisor Haupt requested that the letter be copied to Oregon Congressman Cliff Bentz.

In response to Supervisor Kobseff, Ms. Nielsen advised that she would research whether coordination with the BLM was possible at this late date.

Discussion followed between members of the Board and Ms. Nielsen regarding the inclusion of the County's Grazing Policy with the letter and the need for more aggressive, stronger language in the letter.

Deputy County Clerk Wendy Winningham advised that the Clerk and members of the Board received an email from William Simpson with regard to the draft letter.

County resident William Simpson appeared before the Board, advising of the wildfire mitigation benefits associated with wild horses grazing. Mr. Simpson shared concerns regarding the need for stronger language in the Board's letter to the BLM with regard to the Horseshoe Ranch area of the Siskiyou Cascade Monument.

Participation in this agenda item by various members of the public was provided via ZOOM/teleconference phone.

Caller Wayne Linklater, California State University Professor, spoke in support of stronger language with regarding the grazing in the Board's letter to the BLM.

Ms. Nielsen advised that she would copy the letter to Oregon Congressman Cliff Bentz and add additional language as discussed by the Board.

County Counsel Natalie E. Reed requested clarification as to the language to be added to the letter.

Additional discussion followed, including County Administrator Angela Davis, regarding the need to add language demanding that grazing continue in the Monument, Grazing Policy language that can be added to the letter, the benefits associated with including all of the Board's concerns in one letter versus sending an additional letter at a later date, a request for Supervisor Haupt's assistance in drafting the letter and recommendation that the revised letter be ratified at the Board's next regular Board meeting on July 2, 2024.

It was moved by Supervisor Haupt, seconded by Supervisor Criss and carried, following a roll call vote with Supervisors Haupt, Criss and Kobseff voting YES and Supervisors Valenzuela and Ogren ABSENT to approve the letter to the BLM providing comments on the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument Resource Management Plan/Environmental Impact Statement, including the changes directed in the previous paragraph, authorize the Chair to sign with the letter to be brought back for ratification at the next regular meeting.

County Fire Warden Greg Roath appeared before the Board and provided an overview of the request.

Following brief discussion between members of the Board and Chief Roath regarding the Fire Department's willingness to accept the donation, it was moved by Supervisor Haupt, seconded by Supervisor Criss and carried, following a roll call vote with Supervisors Haupt, Criss and Kobseff voting YES and Supervisors Valenzuela and Ogren ABSENT to approve the donation and instruct staff to complete necessary documentation.

Public Requests - United States Fish and Wildlife Service - Discussion and possible direction re request for sale of real property from the Klamath Sprig and Honker Club, a private entity, to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service as detailed in 'White Paper on Sale of Klamath Sprig and Honker Club', property located adjacent to the Lower Klamath National Wildlife Refuge boundary west of the City of Tulelake CA. Presentation and discussion only. No action taken with regard to the sale of real property.

Klamath Sprig and Honker Club President Michael Gillum appeared before the Board, providing an overview of the request to sell Duck Club property to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service. Mr. Gillum briefly summarized the White Paper explaining the history of the property and the purchase/sale request, advising that the White Paper did not indicate that there is a Warranty Deed on the property that would not allow for the property to be used for commercial agriculture now or in the future. Mr. Gillum voiced concerns that the Duck Club was unable to sell the property for commercial agriculture and that there was no plan nor anticipation that the Duck Club would resume active hunting, primarily due to the change in water management in the Klamath Basin. Mr. Gillum spoke in support of allowing the United States Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) to purchase the property and manage the property as part of the larger wildlife refuge.

USFWS Klamath Basin Refuge Manager Ken Griggs appeared before the Board and summarized the Department's anticipated uses (including wetland management and public uses) for the property should the sale be approved by the Board.

In response to Supervisor Criss regarding the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, Mr. Griggs advised that the Act was the source of funding for the potential purchase and would require the County/Board to approve the purchase.

Discussion followed between members of the Board, Mr. Griggs and Mr. Gillum regarding the need for County rather than State approval under the Act in California, the location of the subject property, the inability of the property to be used for agricultural production with only 5% of the property that could be used to produce food crops for wildlife, the minimal hunting pass fees that the property could generate for the USFWS, the Duck Club's lack of revenue being generated and the possibility that the Duck Club could appeal their property taxes.

Public Requests - United States Fish and Wildlife Service – (continued)

Supervisor Haupt shared concerns regarding the potential loss to the County should the property be sold to a Federal agency.

Participation in this agenda item by various members of the public was provided via ZOOM/teleconference phone.

Caller Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) Easement Program Manager Dean Kwasny provided a history of Conservation Easements, and an overview of the activities that would be allowed on property under a Conservation Easement as is the subject property. Mr. Kwasny advised that the USFWS would be able to manage the property for public uses and/or as a wetland/refuge if the rights were granted back to the USFWS.

Lengthy discussion followed, including Mr. Kwasny regarding the inability of property under a Conservation Easement to be utilized for commercial agriculture, the estimated price/value for the property when placed into Conservation Easement in 2005, the difficulties associated with terminating conservation easements, the anticipated process for the USFWS enter into an agreement with NRCS to manage under the easement, only natural vegetation that would be allowed to be grown on the property under an easement, the various compatible uses that the property could be managed, the other entities approached to possibly purchase the property and the County's policy under Resolution 13-87 related to no net increase in State and Federal land ownership in the County.

In response to Supervisor Haupt regarding the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, County Counsel Natalie E. Reed advised that County Counsel's Office did not review as the Act was not referred to in the agenda item's backup material.

Supervisor Haupt shared concerns regarding the potential impact of dam removal on migratory birds in the County and the Klamath Basin.

Participation in this agenda item by various members of the public was provided via ZOOM/teleconference phone.

Caller USFWS representative Viola Randall provided an overview of the process to utilize Migratory Bird Treaty Act funding to purchase the property and a brief history of the USFWS interaction with the Duck Club concerning the property.

In response to Chair Kobseff, Deputy County Clerk Wendy Winningham advised that the Clerk's Office mails out hard copies of Resolution 13-87 and another Resolution adopted in 2008 annually to various governmental agencies.

Audience member Kevin Levy appeared before the Board, sharing concerns regarding the potential type of hunting that would be available on the property should the USFWS was to purchase and ultimately manage the property.

Further discussion followed regarding the lack of water in the lower Klamath Basin and associated negative impacts to waterfowl and upland birds, Board members' concerns regarding the potential negative impacts to the County should the property be purchased by USFWS, the County's policy of no net loss to the County, the possibility that adding to the lower Klamath Refuge land base that could positively impact/benefit the County, the limited ability of the Duck Club to receive water allocations on the property (the Duck Club does not have water rights), the different types of conservation easements including those that allow for agricultural production activities and Board members' support for the County's no net loss policy.

Klamath Sprig and Honker Club member Jeanna Culrich advised that the money received for the Conservation Easement in 2005 was used to improve the property.

The Board did not support the request for sale of real property from the Klamath Sprig and Honker Club, a private entity, to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

No action was taken.

County Clerk - Discussion, direction and possible action re clarification of timing for a Personnel hearing for an appeal of termination filed on behalf of a Sheriff's Office employee scheduled for August 6 and 7, 2024. The Board clarified the August 6, 2024 start time as 1:30 p.m. with a 9:00 a.m. start time on August 7, 2024, if needed.

Deputy County Clerk Wendy Winningham provided an overview of the request to establish a start time for the Personnel hearing for an appeal of termination filed on behalf of a Sheriff's Office employee scheduled for August 6 and 7, 2024.
