Grievance Complaint Procedures. The purpose of these procedures is to afford employees simple means of obtaining consideration of their grievance or complaint by informal means at the department head level and review of the department head's decision without the use of legalistic forms and procedures.

A grievance or complaint may be filed (i) if a management interpretation or application of a law, ordinance, resolution, regulation, or rule adversely affects the employee's wage, hours, or conditions of employment.

Excluded from the grievance procedure are performance evaluations and actions of the Board of Supervisors. This is not intended to limit the right of any employee or employee representative to approach the Board of Supervisors on any matter.

Grievances or complaints must be filed on a form provided by the Personnel Office under the following procedure:

12.1. Step 1: Immediate Supervisor

Each employee, believing they have a grievance or complaint, before filing the same in writing, will discuss their problem or complaint with the immediate supervisor in an attempt to resolve the matter as simply and informally as possible. Said grievance or complaint must be discussed with the immediate supervisor within fifteen (15) working days of the situation giving rise to the grievance or from the date the employee should reasonably have expected to know of the situation giving rise to the grievance or complaint.

If the grievance or complaint has not been resolved at the immediate supervisor level within ten (10) working days after the discussion, the grievance or complaint may be submitted to the next management level.

12.2. Step 2: Appointing Authority/Department Head

If the grievance or complaint is not resolved under Step 1, it may be submitted to the appointing authority/department head. The grievance or complaint must be submitted within fifteen (15) working days after the verbal decision of Step 1. Within five (5) working days after submission, the employee will meet with the appointing authority or a designated representative, and within ten (10) working days after said meeting a written decision will be delivered to the employee.

12.3. Step 3 County Grievance Panel

If the grievance or complaint is not resolved under Step 2, it may be submitted to a County Mediation Panel within ten (10) working days of the employee's receipt of the above decision. The panel will consist of the County Administrator or designee and the Deputy County Administrator – Personnel and Risk Management Officer or designee and two (2) representatives of the employee association. Within ten (10) working days after submission, the employee will meet with the Mediation Panel and within five (5) working days after said meeting a written recommendation will be delivered to the Deputy County Administrator – Personnel and Risk Management Officer. The Deputy County Administrator – Personnel and Risk Management Officer will provide the employee and the appointing authority a written decision within five (5) working days after receiving the Panel's recommendation.

12.4. Step 4 State Mediation

If the grievance or complaint is not resolved under Step 2/3, it will be submitted to Personnel. Within five (5) working days after receipt the Personnel Manager will contact the State Mediation and Conciliation Service and a mediation date will be scheduled at the soonest possible date.

12.5. Step 5 - Board of Supervisors

- a) If the grievance or complaint is not resolved under Step 4, it may be appealed to the Board of Supervisors. Appeals will be filed in writing with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors within ten (10) working days from the time a decision was rendered in Step 4. The Clerk of the Board of Supervisors will advise the Board of the grievance or complaint appeal within fifteen (15) working days. As soon as practicable thereafter, the Board of Supervisors will hear the grievance or complaint in accordance with the rules for hearing established by the Board, and make a written decision that is binding on all parties involved.
- b) If an employee does not appeal the decision rendered regarding the grievance or complaint within the time limits, the grievance or complaint is considered resolved.
- c) If a County representative does not render a decision to the employee within the time limitations, the employee may, within five (5) working days thereafter, appeal to the next step in the procedure.
- d) If the management representative does not feel he or she has the authority to resolve the grievance or complaint, the grievance or complaint may be referred to the next step in the procedure.
- e) The Deputy County Administrator – Personnel and Risk Management Officer may temporarily suspend the grievance processing on a unit, division, department, or county-wide basis in an emergency situation. A formally recognized employee organization that represents employees in a unit that has had the grievance or complaint processing suspended may appeal to the Board of Supervisors.
- f) By agreement in writing, the parties may extend any and all time limitations of this procedure.

- g) Any grievance or complaint petition resolved at any step of the grievance procedure is final and binding on the County and the grievant.
- h) Any grievance or complaint may be withdrawn by the grievant at any time, in writing, without prejudice.
- i) Upon consent of the person hearing the grievance or complaint petition and the grievant, a petition may be re-submitted to a lower step in the procedure for reconsideration.

Article 13 - Effect of Prior Memorandums of Understanding

This Agreement supersedes and replaces all prior Memorandums of Understanding, and is the full, final, and only agreement between the County and the Sheriff's Management Unit. It is the intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement supersede all prior agreements and memorandums of agreement or understanding, or contrary salary and or personnel resolutions, oral or written, express or implied, between the parties, and governs the entire relationship and is the sole source of any and all rights that may be asserted hereunder.
