NORTHERN COUNTY HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES DIRECTOR'S CONSORTIUM MEMBERSHIP

The Northern County Health and Human Services (HHS) Directors' Consortium (NCDC) is a regional collaborative modeled after successful consortia in other California regions. Through a membership-based structure, participating counties contribute annual dues to support coordinated convenings, shared learning, and regional collaboration among HHS leaders. Participation in the consortium will result in strengthened regional collaboration, enhanced leadership capacity, increased alignment on policy and program implementation, and identification of opportunities for shared solutions and advocacy across Northern California counties.

The consortium provides a structured forum for county HHS Directors and their deputies (or equivalent) to:

- Build and strengthen professional relationships across counties
- Share promising practices, innovations and lessons learned
- Identify and advocate on shared regional challenges
- Explore opportunities for resource sharing and joint projects
- Support leadership development and succession planning
- Engage in executive-level professional development

Participants

- County Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA) or Social Services Agency (SSA) Directors (or equivalent executives)
- Deputy/Assistant Directors or equivalent program leaders, who contribute subject matter expertise and presentations on their program topic areas

Convenings and Structure

The consortium will host four in-person convenings annually. Each convening will follow a consistent structure and be coordinated by UC Davis in partnership with regional co-chairs and designated planning support. The meeting structure is as follows:

- Four (4) 1.5-day meetings per year, held in the greater Sacramento region or other locations within the region as determined by consortium members.
- The meeting focus will rotate through the following core program areas once per year: Adult Services, Self-Sufficiency, Fiscal, and Children's Services.
- Day 1: Directors and Deputies (or equivalent) – program-focused presentations, guest speakers, professional development.
- Day 2 (half-day): Directors only (or designee) – peer exchange, problem-solving, strategic collaboration.

UC Davis will provide consortium coordination, logistical support and agenda development in partnership with county representatives. Regional co-chairs and consortium participants will guide meeting content and priorities.

Membership Dues

Dues are assessed based on county size, consistent with other regional consortia. Annual membership dues will fund consortium operations and activities, including:

- Staffing time for planning, coordination, logistics, agenda development and administrative support

- Meeting venues and meals (breakfasts and lunches) during convenings
- Hotel/lodging and parking costs for directors and deputies/equivalent
- Guest speakers on selected topics and trainers for executive development opportunities
- Special projects, which may include consultants, white papers or other projects to benefit the region's counties, as determined by the consortium members

Total Consortium Costs: $5,520

CUSTOM TRAINING SERVICES COSTS: $158,100.00

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA DIRECTOR'S CONSORTIUM COSTS: $5,520.00

TOTAL CONTRACT COSTS: $163,620.00
